Persuasive Writing Graphic Organizer

What is the issue?

Introduction shows clear understanding of the issue

Thesis statement: your position or opinion

Presented in a precise and logical statement

Supporting reason #1 Logical reason, details, examples, evidence	Supporting reason #2 Logical reason, details, examples, evidence	Supporting reason #3 Logical reason, details, examples, evidence

Opposing viewpoints: arguments that differ from yours
(the other side of the issue – yes, there always is one!)

Various arguments and implications are evaluated and responded to

Conclusion
Summarize the issue, re-state thesis,
Re-state strong supporting statement

– YOUR STRONGEST ARGUMENT!